Enrolling for FCCA course at the Postgraduate School of Credit and Financial Management (PSCFM) will help you gain both knowledge and practical experience. You will learn from senior professional credit and financial analysts who will support your academic and career goals, equipping you to compete in the credit management and financial analysis job market.

PSCFM

Study Duration & Exclusive Partnership

In exclusive partnership with ICA Nigeria, LPCMC UK, FCCA course has duration of ten (10) months, designed to maximize exemptions from the exams set by the professional credit management and financial analysis partnership bodies in this programme which are the Institute of Credit Administration (ICA) Nigeria, London Postgraduate Credit Management College (LPCMC), United Kingdom and Postgraduate School of Credit and Financial Management (PSCFM), Nigeria. This means student of FCCA will sit fewer ICA or LPCMC exams, thus shorten the length of time it will take FCCA holder to gain full scale professional qualification such as ICA's Associate or LPCMC's CCFA. That's to say, FCCA course is your pathway to become an Associate member of the Institute of Credit Administration (ICA), Nigeria, or a Certified Credit and Financial Analyst (CCFA) of the London Postgraduate Credit Management College (LPCMC) UK, subject to fulfilling stipulated requirements put in place by the respective professional bodies.

FCCA And You

The Foundation Certificate in Credit Management Analysis (FCCA) will enhance your career in various ways. The high quality ten (10) month course duration is fully supported by ICA Nigeria and LPCMC United Kingdom.

PSCFM

FCCA Targets

- Those holding academic and professional qualifications that are not in high demand in the labour market.
- Technical or administrative assistants; including secretaries, personal assistants who are providing credit management related departmental support services to their Heads, Supervisors, Directors and Credit Committee Coordinators in credit granting organizations.
- Holders of post-secondary or high school qualification including ordinary diplomas, part 1 or part 2 completion certificate of an awarding professional body
- Undergraduates with 5 credit pass in GCE, O'level, WASSCE or NECO

For all the above categories, FCCA provides a unique starting point to gain invaluable technical skill to stand out in credit management and financial analysis at basic level.

“In the past, individual have come into the credit management field without previous preparation. Their entrance into this line was frequently not a matter of deliberate choice and planning.”

FCCA and Job Market

Leveraging on the robust relationship existing between ICA, PSCFM and employers of labour in Nigeria over the years, all our FCCA students stands the chance of getting a job in credit management and financial analysis industry at entry level even before they complete their studies as we expect them to pay excellent attention to their study in line with our learning policy for students. Surely, 80% of FCCA holders can be in employment within Nigeria, or further study within six months in the United Kingdom if they are financially able. We really aim at 100% overall satisfaction that cannot be matched. Yes, that's the bigger opportunity.

PSCFM is open to work with credit granting organizations in both private and public sectors to solve the most complex challenges in credit management, credit administration and credit/financial analysis environment that they are inevitably going to face in post – Covid -19 era.

Our cutting-edge thinking can help to avert tendency for a lax business credit portfolio regime through research collaborations, consultancy, education and networking – or by hiring our well-baked credit management and financial analysis specialist graduates.

FCCA Course: What You Should Expect
